Honoring our stewards

The Land Conservancy paid tribute to its top supporters at a Nov. 18, 2009 event at the Chagrin Valley Hunt Club in Gates Mills.

Land Conservancy President and CEO Rich Cochran expressed his gratitude to the attendees for their support of our mission. In addition, there was a ceremony recognizing the inaugural members of the White Oak Legacy Society, a planned giving program. They received White Oak pins noting their commitment.

Bill Mulligan and Dick Grimm.

Mary Weber, Pat and John Leech

Make a lasting gift
to our beautiful land.

Join the Land Conservancy's White Oak Legacy Society, whose members make a permanent commitment to land protection through wills, trusts and other estate-planning tools.
